“ It's been almost 4 years I'm a lee days and I'm not looking forward to Halloween night at all. I can still hear the panic in Kizzy voice when she called me. I miss you and Joe so much. Our family just not the same I miss how you and I would go back and forth over football. I love you and miss you and Joe make sure you take care of each other I know that's why you left to make sure Joe wasn't alone. Continue to watch over is.. 💔

“Rip in peace boo I can't even begin to express the devastation that my heart feels. I miss you so much. I don't even know how I am to walk life without you. Our plans will never be. What hurts the most is we were definitely on the right track. Christian is really struggling with this all. Every day he tells me he wants his boo back. Awilda is trying to be my rock as always but she's crushed. Chino is trying to fill big shoes and be the man of the house now... But he is so disappointed and hurt because he was finally going to have a dad. I know you'll continue to look after all 6 of our kids and I thank the good lord for them all. I will continue to honor you and will keep your memory alive always. This is not a good by but a I'll see you again. The only thing that carries me throughout my days is knowing and witnessing the day you gave your life to the lord. Te amo mi amor 🥰

“My sincerest condolences to the family of Roland Deloatch. Losing a loved one in death is painful. It is such times like this that we should look to the Almighty God for comfort. Psalm 34:18 says, "Jehovah is close to the broken-hearted. He saves those who are crushed in spirit."

May your reflection on this promise and your many fond memories of Roland give you the strength you need to endure this difficult time.
