“ You were my first True love and I have always kept you in my heart for your kind and happy Spirit, There are so many great memories for the years we were a couple. My family fell in love with you instantly and all our friends loved you as well cause being around you was joyful. When I think of you I see you with the big Smile and a sparkle in your eyes. I've watched you over the years feeling happy for you and your family. I hope you' are now in a happy place knowing that many People loved you and will nevěř forget. Love, Kamila.

“ We may not have been in touch for many years, but the news of your passing have struck hard. The memories of you are full of fun and good times. The young “old crew”, carefree, always up to whatever shenanigans. Life was good back then. You were always well loved and well respected, there was not a soul in our little Czech community that would not know you, in person or just by your legendary moniker. In the hearts of many, you are and you always will be - The One and Only Bača! I pray for you have found your peace. My sincere condolences to your loved ones.

“ Roman's laugh was loud and contagious. He filled the room with his Big presence, Big smile and delicious cooking. I'll never forget his grilled Veggies. It didn't matter that the grill and the rental cabin almost caught on fire they were the BEST grilled vegetables I ever had. We will always remember when taking a picture to... "Do the Roman"
May you Rest in Peace.
