“Times spent with Ron, Linda, and family will always be cherished memories. Ron was a wise man and loyal friend, who was always willing to help in time of need. I will especially miss hearing him sing the "oldies but goodies," his sense of humor, and his laughter. However, I know that he is at peace now and singing to the Lord a new song. One day soon we will all be reunited and rejoicing. Until then, may God bless those he loved and left behind with peace that passes all understanding. Bonnie Mae
