“ Years ago, as a friend of her daughter's, I spent many days and nights at the Levene home when they lived in New Jersey. Ronnie was always a great listener, a wonderful cook, a supportive friend, and a mother to all under her roof. Her passing opens afresh the wound of losing her daughter, Andrea, as she was a great friend to me. In all the years I knew Mrs. Levene, she was always such a fun person to be around. She made you want to be a part of the family, and she welcomed you warmly. As the family grieves the loss of this amazing woman, my heartfelt condolences go out to you all, especially "Upstairs" / Frank. May Ronnie rest in peace free from pain, knowing that she brightened many lives with her love and her light. God be with you all in this most difficult time.
