“ The Taylor family sends our deepest condolences to Peter Patrick and your families on the loss of their mother. Rose was very special to us. She was helpful to Jim when he acquired his business. She set up his office, hired and trained staff and as the business grew she became an expert on the computer. She was kind, generous with her time and taught our children the ropes. We know she is in a peaceful place now. Love Jim Tess Anita Andrea and Alex

“ Aunt Rose was a wonderful and pure soul. I remember so many times when we would visit her in Florida and she would give my dad grief for how horribly he treated me, meanwhile I felt it was just her way of spoiling me with love. I remember when I was pregnant with my son after a long struggle and was nervous. She spoke up and validated my fears. She said it was OK for me to be nervous which actually made me feel stronger and happier. She was a gift to so many.

“ What a pleasure it was to work with Rose for over 15 years while at Jim Taylor Corp. We worked through many challenges but she would reward me with the BEST Stuffed Eggplant Parmigiana. It was never equaled and it will never be forgotten. She always served that with a smile.

I met Rose when she interviewed me for the job as receptionist at Jim Taylor Beer Corp. We hit it off right away during the interview. Rose was very kind, sweet and was a great boss. I have fond memories of Rose during all those years at Jim Taylor.
