

Rose C. Wagner

May 16, 1917 - April 29, 2016

Rosalie “Rose” Wagner died peacefully in her home on Friday, April 29, 2016 in Maitland, Florida at the age of 98. She was just shy of her 99th birthday.

Rose was born in New York on May 16, 1917 to Italian immigrants, the late Saverio and Agata “Katie” Raia. She was the youngest of 4 children. She married her beloved Frederick “Butsy” Wagner on October 19, 1941 at St. Stanaslaus Church in Maspeth, New York. In the 40’s Rose owned a Beauty Salon and years later she moved into the world of advertising. When ready to retire in 1973 they moved to their home in Maitland, Florida.

Rose was a beautiful woman inside and out who loved her family and was always full of life. She loved socializing at the NCO and Moose Clubs as well as gardening, cruising, vacationing in Disney with her grand and great-grandchildren and spending time with her friends. She was an animal lover and avid Yankee fan. She had an enormous heart and always had a kind word for everyone. She was blessed with amazing neighbors who always looked out for her, whom she called friends.

She is survived by her daughters, Carole Fagan and Joan Miller. Her grandchildren, Carolyn Jones and Michael Perrotta, Susanne Fagan and Dennis Royer, Joanna and Christopher Burlew. Her great-grandchildren, Katelyn Jones, Peyton Burlew and Cameron Burlew and many nieces and nephews. She entered the kingdom of heaven surrounded by the people who loved her.

Your life was a blessing, your memory a treasure, you are loved beyond words and will be missed beyond measure. You will always be in our hearts grandma. We love you!

“ Grandma, although you are no longer with us our memories of you will live in our hearts forever. We were blessed to have so many amazing and wonderful years with you. Our family trips won't be the same without your beautiful smiling face, but we will hold our heads up high and celebrate your life each year when the family gathers together. May you rest in peace and keep watching over us forever and ever. I love you.

I first met Fred and Rose 38 years old when we moved in next door to them. I was pregnant with my oldest son at the time and as my family grew, so did our love for Fred and Rose. They treated me and my family, like family. When the kids were babies, Rose would welcome us to swim in the pool. Fred and Rose became my son's "other grandparents". When Fred past away there was a void, but we went on. Now that Rose has gone to be with Fred, there is a bigger void, but we know Rose led a full and happy life and she is now enjoying eternal life with Fred. Thank you for allowing us to come into your life.

“ I spent three weeks in January with mom and the family. I did my usual straightening and moving things, not to much Mom like her things her way. I only arraigned a few things in the kitchen making easier to get to. Little did I know after I left and went home, that Mom was in the kitchen one day with all of the pots pans and dishes out on the counter. My sister came in and asked her what she was doing and she replied that Girl (meaning me) moved everything and she was putting everything back. That was Mom and that's why I loved her.

“ Rose welcomed me into her family the first time we met. Over the years I had the pleasure of joining her & the rest of the family on cruises & trips to Disney. I have to admit she made the best pot roast I ever ate.

Because she is gone does not mean you are no longer in our family because you are and always will be. Mom loved you and so do we. There are not enough words to express my thanks for what you did for her in the past year. She may have gr-umped and complained but she knew how much you cared and besides don't forget you gave her her ICE CREAM every night. I'm so glad Susie has a friend like you and the two of you cared so deeply for MOM
