“ As neighbors of Roy for almost twenty years, we are saddened to hear of his passing. He would walk by our condo every day with Beau, and later Panchie and often we would talk. Later we noticed that he would drive Panchie to the petwalk, so we didn't get a chance to visit as much. Roy was always pleasant and interesting to talk with and he clearly loved his faithful four-legged companions. He spoke of his family at times, with love and pride. We will dearly miss his presence.
