

Mr. Rubin "Jay" Toledo

November 12, 1962 - June 2, 2014

Rubin "Jay" Toledo was born November 12, 1962 in Brooklyn, New York to Rubin & Gloria Toledo.

He is survived by his wife Sheila; three sons Jason, Christopher and Nicholas; grandson Anthony and daughter-in-law Audrey. Also, his father Rubin; two brothers Steven and Gregory; sister Karen (KMT); two sister-in-laws Jodi and Marianna; four nieces and two nephews.

Jay was a free spirit who loved to enjoy life to the fullest. He was a great cook and an even better eater! For the last few years of his life he was able to enjoy his motorcycle and would ride every day. He loved music and would sneak off to the beach every chance he could get. He was always there for a joke or to make you smile.

Jay was loved by many and will forever be remembered.

In lieu of flowers the family asks to make donations to the American Heart Association in his name.

“ Jay loved life and his family to the fullest. He always had a giant smile and knew how to make everyone laugh. He called me Wendy, even though he knew that was not my name. Love you, brother. You are gone but will never be forgotten.
