“ The Lord has called home another Angel. Condolences to the families. Russel one of my memories of you that will stay with me forever (and there are so many) is Patsy telling you keep it coming (an inside joke). May you find your place at the Devine lotus feet of our lord. Raam Naam Satya Hai Sadgati. From god we come and to god we return.

“ Russell will be remembered for his quiet demeanor, kind heart and his signature oyster sauce. I will always remember him wearing his sleeveless cut out tshirt and short jean shorts riding on his bicycle most likely on his way to play a lotto or scratch off, but what I will never forget about Russel is that every time we visited, and without fail, he would say “ here, hold this, go buy Mc Donald’s for breakfast. He was truly a generous person.

To his family, the Ramrattan’s and Ramsaroop’s may you find strength and peace during this trying time.

I pray that his soul rest in eternal peace. He will truly be missed.

*With Love,
Uncle Jumbo, aunty Chandra, Rhoda, Rossi, Nazreen, Naveed and Naima*

“Russel will be remembered for his quiet demeanor, kind heart and signature oyster sauce . I can picture him riding his bicycle dressed in his sleeveless cut out T-shirt and short jeans pants heading to the nearest lotto place to play ‘scratch off’, I think it was his favorite things to do. One thing I will never forget is every time my family and I visited in Orlando, Russell would give us money to go have breakfast at Mc Donald’s without fail, he will truly be missed. To his family, especially the Ramsaroop’s, I pray that God give you strength during this time of need. May hiis soul rest in eternal peace.
