Mr. Swift wanted to leave each of his beloved family and friends with a poem:

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me

To be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles
When life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering
Softly down the ways.
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave
When life is done.

“ Dear Melba, I am so sorry to hear about Russ's passing. He was someone I enjoyed golfing with and just hanging around after a meeting to have a drink with. I enjoyed working with him with DRMGA, I am glad we were able to coax him out of retirement for the last few years it was operating.

He was a good man who will be missed by many. Please accept my deepest condolences.

Russ, was my stalwart hole captain for hole 1 and one of most reliable volunteers who I could always count on to do an awesome job...

I will miss that smile that he always had..
