“ Linda Ford - daughter in law posted a condolence I fell like Ruth was always a part of my life and loved her very much. Not only was she the strongest person I think we will ever met she was also the most honest like it or not that;s just how it was. But she talked me through some pretty tough times and I will never forget her>And I know she know's she leaves behind some very strong children. Whom are also very dear to me. My love and thought's are with you all

“ Lillian Ruth Thompson Moleti - maternal cousin posted a condolence Though seperated by many miles Ruth & I were in tune with our loving mutual relationships- as the dtrs. of 2 sisters. Paralled ages our much different upbringings didn't seem to matter. She was such a love & very admired by me. Working hard most her life with no complaint. It was great to see her & meet her girls so late in life this year. God Bless Ruthie always.

The loss of a love one is never easy. You are such a wonderful and loving family. I am so glad that I had the chance to grow up with such a loving bunch. Please always support and love each other.
Lisa thank you so much for calling me. I was very grateful for my visit.
Love to all, Marie
