“ Aunt Ruth, you were the mother I've have never had. So much love and comfort and goodness in her, I don't know where to start. I am so lucky to have lived close by your family during my younger years and shared in the many happy times filled with love, fun and good food. I, too, remember the Holidays and Bar-B-Ques. As her mother before her, the door was always open, as well as her heart. I witnessed a woman that had so much Love and self confidence, and shared it in her parenting, her work and her marriage. Ruth was a Leader in her family and in her career. I cannot help but feel that everyone she touched benefited greatly. I know I have. I cannot say enough of your marriage and the love you had for your husband and family - it showed every day. Uncle Larry, you have returned all of this and then some in the past years she has been ill. I am so thankful we were able to visit last year - it was the highlight of my Birthday month and a great gift. I will pass on her beautiful spirit and never forget her lovely way. We send so much love to your family and hope the coming days are filled with hope that you all can carry on in her spirit.

“ Ruth was the sidter I never had. From the time zi was 14 she was always my friend and later my sister. We talked st lesst w times a week till she got unable to talk. I loved her so much and I miss her terrible. I am so glad me and the kids got to go down and spend some time with her this past year. She will always be in my hesrt till I die. She was a wonderful person in more ways than one. She loved my kids as they were her own and Ill never forget that. She had Larry who she loved dearly as well as him loving her dearly. “ Spent so many wonderful days at my cousin Ruth's and Larry's house...many Thanksgivings, weekends, weeks during the summer months...growing up with Sheldon and Stockton. Lots of special memories. Even though we all grew apart as we grew up and started our own families, the love never wavered. Ruth was such a sweet, loving woman with a heart of gold and always very fashionable. She will be missed
