

Ryan Christopher Cook

May 8, 1984 - January 13, 2016

Jesus said to her “I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in me will live even if he dies, and everyone who lives and believes in Me will never die.

Do you believe this?”

John 11:25-26

Ryan Christopher Cook passed away peacefully in his sleep on January 13, 2016. He is survived by his loving wife, Carli; son, Jason; Mother Patricia Cook of Debarry; Father Clay Cook of Ormond Beach (stepmother Mary); sister, Caitlin; Step sisters Jackie Viscosi, Alexandra Doyle (John); Stepbrother Christian Viscosi, niece, Brynn; nephew Isaac; and way too many dear, dear family members and friends to enumerate.

“Oh, how we cried the day you left us,
We gathered round your grave to grieve,
I wish I could see the angels’ faces
When they hear your sweet voice sing.”
Go Rest High On That Mountain—Vince Gill

Ryan Cook was born on May 8, 1984 in Cherry Point, North Carolina, and was raised in Florida with strong roots in Oklahoma. He was a member of the Air Force from 2006 through 2014 achieving the rank of Staff Sergeant. Most currently, Ryan was a senior at the Hamilton Holt College of Business of Rollins College, also working for Arthur's Catering.

"When you get up in the mornin'
And you see that crazy sun,
Keep me in your heart for a while,
There's a train leavin' nightly called
'When All Is Said and Done,'
Keep me in your heart for a while."
Keep Me in Your Heart—Warren Zevon

Ryan's was (and is) an infectious spirit that spread quickly to all around him. He loved emphatically, and he was passionate about everything. It was impossible not to love him, as he loved everyone. His stature was matched only by his persona: big, inviting, and warm. He left a void in our lives and hearts.

He whispered, "My precious child, I love you and will never leave you Never, ever, during your trials and testings. When you saw only one set of footprints,
It was then that I carried you." - Mary Stevenson

“ Carli and family, I would like to extend my sincerest condolences to your family. Our Heavenly Father sees your deep pain from your loss. This is not what he wants for his earthly family. That is why he promises: "He will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces." Isaiah 25:8. Tears of pain will be replaced with tears of joy as you welcome your loved one back to life. Until then may you continue to draw strength and comfort from God, family and friends.

“ When I first moved to New Mexico, Ryan was the first new friend I made. Aside from him being a FSU fan, we also had the same musical likes and then not long ago it was Game of War as well. I remember his smile and sense of humor and how it was basically impossible to be in a bad mood around him. For the last week, I've been waking up wishing it wasn't real and I still can't believe he's gone. Carly, I'm so sorry, I wish I was there to give you a hug. Ryan, I'll see you again one day my friend.

“ Ryan was a very dear friend of my son Jason Freed. when I lost Jason on April 13 2007 Ryan assured me Jason would never be forgotten. He never forgot. He contacted me on a regular basis to see how I am doing. To say how much he missed Jason. I will never forget Ryan. What an amazing, caring young man. My heart breaks for Carli, Jason and his family. If I can ever do anything to help please contact me. You will be terribly missed. I love you
