“ I've been looking for you for years and everytime I found you, you had moved on from the job you had. We worked together back in 2001 and you were my favorite co-worker. I am so sorry to know that you've left before I could tell you how much I appreciated you. Chiqui...love you and I'll miss you. - Melinda R.

“ I've been taking the time to smell the roses lately. This life is so hard. But when I see flowers I'm reminded that there's another life waiting for me. A life that's beautiful and filled with love. I know that you're experiencing that life right now. A life with no stress or pain or suffering. A life with joy and purpose. A life that doesn't end. I wish I was there too. Please give my beloved son a kiss for me. I'll see you both in Heaven.
