“ In loving memory of my dear Tim Salvador—

Your warmth, laughter, and generous spirit left a lasting imprint on all of us. When you lived in Jersey City and later in Orlando, you shared not only your joy but the beautiful memories of our family's past with my parents, bringing comfort, connection, and smiles that will never be forgotten. Your stories, your kindness, and your unforgettable sense of humor lit up every room. We will miss you deeply, but your spirit lives on in the joy you gave and the love you left behind. Our condolences to his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Rest peacefully, Tio Salvador.

“ Tio Salvador was one of the greatest person I have known in my life; he helped me a lot from day 1 after I arrived from Peru in 1966 when I was only 15 years old; he was like a second father to me, he picked me up every day after he got out from work and took me to do sports and have dinner at his house.
Very proud to be his nephew. He is a hero in Peru as he boxed representing Peru in the 1939 London Olympics. God bless him and rest in peace.
