

Salvatore A. Forte

March 15, 2011

Salvatore A. Forte 81 of St. Petersburg passed away Tuesday, March 15, 2011. Born in the Bronx, New York, he was an Army veteran of the Korean War. Sal was the president of Southport Stevadors at the Port of Tampa and then later ran SEL Maduro Shipping for many years. He was passionate about his grand children and sports, especially the NY Yankees. Sal is survived by his loving children, Tony and his wife, Michele; Rob and his wife, Donna; Annie Bradbury and her husband, Richard; six grandchildren: Andrew, Ryan, Michael, Kyle, Nicholas and Zane. A Funeral Mass will be celebrated Saturday morning March 19, 2011 at St. Paul “ Vincent A. Forte - Cousin (Uncle John) posted a condolence I was filling out an Omaha Steaks order to send to Sal for Christmas. For years we've been exchanging gifts. I so looked forward to his grapefruit. As I was filling out the on-line form, and address popped-up different from his usual address. I called the telephone # but was told it was disconnected. I went on line for a Google people search and it listed that he had passed away. I was stunned. The last time i saw him was at Aunt Nettie's funeral. I so looked forward to the grapefruit he would send me every Christmas. I, in turn, would always send him something from Omaha Steaks (for 2, since he was a very popular person). I've been trying to get in touch with his brother, Vincent, but no one picks up the telephone.

“ Jim Patrick - Friend posted a condolence I am very sorry that I didn't hear about Sal's passing until now. Sal was a good friend and mentor to me and to many others. His loyalty to his friends was legendary and he provided us all with an example of a principled life well lived. It also helped that he was the only other person on the waterfront who loved Italian opera. Sal Forte was among the most generous and honorable men I've ever known. We shall not see his like again.

“ Marilyn (Mrs. Ray) Rash - Friend of my late husband posted a condolence Deepest sympathy to Sal's family. Ray loved and admired Sal. About 20 years ago (1991 I think), I was able to get Sal tickets to the NCAA Basketball Final Four Tournament, and he was so filled with glee and so happy. I will always remember his kind thanks, and now it's Final Four time again! My prayers are with your dear family. Marilyn (Mrs. Ray) Rash

“ Troy - Friend posted a condolence I'm very thankful for having known Sal for a few short years. A very warm person that reflects brightly in the family and friends that surround him. My condolences and prayers for the family. The measure of any living being is the memories that they leave behind. In saying so I will remember Sal always with warm thoughts and a smile on my face. Rest in peace my friend.
