

Salvatore F Guarino

August 30, 2010

Salvatore "Goo Goo" Guarino was born on April 25, 1941 and raised in Harlem, New York. Camille, his wife of 48 years was his "other-half". He grew up in a rather large family, molding him to become one of the greatest husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, and uncle (gourmet chef and "lawyer") anyone could ever ask for. He was a very loved and loving man. A man that would give you the shirt off of his back before you could realize that you needed one. He was very respected, the heart of the family. He taught values and was a man of his word. He was brilliant and fun and wonderful. He moved to St. Pete, Florida to be closer to his family in 2000 (his grandkids being the main reason of course). He lived a good and loving life. He was constantly surrounded by people he loved, and who cared deeply about him. His loss is tremendous. His life will be remembered every single day. He is survived by his wife Camille, his son Lawrence, his daughters Detta Scarr and Jennifer, His sister Sandra Rios, 7 grandchildren, 1 great granddaughter, multiple nieces, nephews, and family "in-laws". May he eternally Rest in Peace.

Friends will be received Thursday, September 2 from 4 to 8 PM at the funeral home, where funeral services will be Friday at 10:00AM. Interment will be in Calvary Catholic Cemetery

“ Hi, I just happened to read this obituary did not know Gogo had passed nor that he was living in Florida. I knew him in the 50's when he was living 107th St. I lived 111 St next door to his uncle Nicky. When we were kids I used to go up to Monroe, Mt Lodge Pk. with Nicky and his wife Else and would see Gogo there and in the area of 107th St. Sorry I hadn't contacted him before. May he rest in peace. “ Kele Gaiscioch - Friend of Roe Verderosa posted a condolence Although I didn't personally know Uncle Goo Goo, I came to know him as a beloved favorite Uncle of Roseann. He sounded like a Prince, a great father & role model. My prayers are with him and I know he was here on earth to touch everyone.

“ Lenny Scarr (Big Guy) - Grandson posted a condolence These words dont even express one percent of my feelings towards you Grandpa. You taught me as well as showed me first hand the aspect of being a real man and I am forever thankful for having you in my life. One of the most family oriented men I have ever known and a true best friend in my life. You will always be remembered and loved now and forever. You live through me and I'll make sure I make you proud throughout the rest of my life. A part of me is missing right now but will one day be complete when we see each other again. Love you always and forever, Big Guy.

“ Laura Cruikshank - friend of the family posted a condolence I never had the honor of meeting or knowing Mr. Guarino but I know that he was someone you could learn valuable lessons from, someone you could look up to and someone you would be proud to call a friend. He had a lust for life and by me having the pleasure of being friends of one of his daughters Detta I was at least able to see how wonderfully he and his wife Camille taught, molded and shaped their children. That alone speaks volumes about the type of person he was. I wanted to send my condolences to the family and to let you know you will continually stay in my prayers. I pray that the Lord surrounds you with his love and compassion and helps ease your pain and sorrow. Sincerely, Laura Cruikshank

“ Dennis & LuAnn Justi - Friends posted a condolence Words cannot express how very sorry we are for your loss. Life is not fair. Having had the privilege of knowing Sal, I clearly understand what an inspiration he was to you and what an impact he made on your life. You clearly walk in his footsteps. His strength and power stood out in such a way that was truly unforgettable to me. Know in your heart that he too was blessed by having an amazing family and a wife like you.
