BS

“ Sal was an awesome son, and I love him very much. He was kind, and cared about his family. As a kid, we called him Hutta baby Sal, but he grew into a big strong man. I will miss him. Love him. ”

“ As kids growing up my brother was always my buddy. We would built forts together, attempted to escape punishment together and definitely created havoc for our big sister together. He was always the source of fun and never judged me. In sad times he always found a way to put a smile on my face and was that source of comfort. I miss him so much and love him dearly.

Thank you Sal for all the memories and lessons you taught me. I love you forever and always - Your little sis
