“ Christmas when I was about 10 my Dad got me my mom and sister stuffed musical teddy bears that played music and had a flashing heart beat. He had them hidden and was so proud when he turned out the lights and brought them in all playing. Remember this was probably 1980 so it was high tech then. I can also remember the first 3 wheeler I ever owned. We didn't have monet so I never expected anything like that . It was used and had dry rotted tires and I mowed yards to buy replacement tires. My dad taught us alot about life experiences and to always be honest and fair. He will always be in my heart. I live you dad and miss you very much. Rest in peace!
