“ Sam, what can I say!! I'm lost for words over his demise. We had the best of times together and some not so good. Still, I'll always remember his as a fighter and respect his ways. I treasure the times we spent and the laughter we shared. May you rest in peace...sunyo

“ RIP and OM SHANTI SHANTI 🙏 to dearest Samir's soul. Samikins, we are still in shock about your demise. You were so full of enthusiasm for life and had a great sense of humour. I remember the times when we used to laugh for hours about the silliest of things. I remember when you moved in with us for a while, we played cards and board games into the night at times and how we used to scold you for trying to cheat at times 😏. I have fond memories of the times we used to all party together and how I threw up in your car and was sick for 2 days after I mixed cheap red wine with white wine at a party we had gone to. How once on a trip to the USA, you were filling up our car with petrol and the pump jumped out suddenly and doused me in petrol 🚰 😅. We laughed a lot but I reeked of petrol for 2 days! There are many more funny memories. Your boundless energy and enthusiasm kept us all going on various events/outings etc we had together. You made up really funny nicknames for Sheetal (Babykins), yourself (Samikins), and myself (Nitakins). Samikins, we had good and some not so pleasant times together, unfortunately you have been taken too early from us. Condolences to your family from Nita, Amar and Krishan. Again rest in peace dearest Samikins. 🙏

“ Sammykins I will never forget the times we spent together when we were younger. Your entrepreneurial side started at a very young age when we organised parties and discussed shares nonstop. We would laugh about the silliest things that no one else found funny, there was always something amusing to laugh about with you. You were definitely the life and soul of every occasion with your amazing energy and your ability to make everyone smile. We are sending love and our deepest condolences to your children and the family. Rest in peace brother and we know you will be smiling down on us.

“ Sam. Your cheerful and happy face will be missed. You were always on the go with an abundance of positive ideas from your teens. The phrase “opportunities don’t happen, you create them” applies to how you lived life. Your favorite word “hane” still resonates with us when we think of you. God bless your soul and may you rest easy in eternal sleep. Sanjay and Usha

“ Ah my dear friend Sam – I can't believe you are no longer with us. Sam was like a brother to me. We have been friends since we were 17 years old (yes, a long time). We have been friends through thick and thin and various stages of our lives – and each part has been a joy. Sam is an amazing friend always knowing the right thing to say or do with great emotional intelligence . He was fun, effervescent, energetic , loyal , trustworthy, and generous. After spending time with him I would always have a smile on my face. He was many things too many people a son, father to 3 beautiful children , brother , uncle , entrepreneur, and a great friend to many. I will miss him dearly – love you brother

“ Sam, we became friend in 1986. So I'm one of your oldest friends. We've been through the ups and downs of life and supported eachother through the years. Still can't believe you're gone. But as they always say, the good die young. You lived your life at 100mph and fitted so much into your life. I'll be there with you one day. Untill then, keep a place for me.

“Sam from the moment we first met we became instant friends. You were one of the first people I met here in Colombia. You offered me a place to live that I was so happy it literally turned my life around. Anyone that knows you will say that you were the one who spoke to everyone and just lit up the room and loved socializing and connecting people. We shared a lot of fun time together here in Colombia.

You are an amazing father and incredible friend and a wonderful person. We are all still completely in shock. Rest in peace my friend we love you.

“ This is a difficult loss. Sam will be missed by many. He was very close to my brother, Abdul and his wife Mafy. They were inseparable a large part of their life since 1991. Every time we visit Orlando, Sam was there to brighten our visit. I'll never forget Sam's kindness. He was one of the funniest people to be around. He was able to effortlessly make everyone else have a good time. Sam always put a smile on my face and will continue to do so whenever I think about him.

To his kids, mother and sister - I am so sorry for this loss. Just know that Sam was loved by many.

Rest in Paradise Doc!

I'm still in disbelief the world lost a person like Sam. Sam everyone loved you. You always made the room bright.
