“ Jean Barone - sister-in-law posted a condolence She Is Gone You can shed tears that she is gone Or you can smile because she has lived You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left Your heart can be empty because you can't see her Or you can be full of the love that you shared You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday You can remember her and only that she is gone Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back Or you can do what she would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on. David Harkins Sandi - always a young spirit.

“ Charlene Shelfer - Sister posted a condolence Sandi was always the sister who could put thoughts and feelings beautifully into words. I wish I could express the emptiness I feel and yet my life is so much richer because of her. Sandi would take me with her to rock "reviews"...we saw James Brown, Chuck Berry, the Shirelles. She let me join in on her teenage birthday parties. That's just the kind of person that she was...giving, open, funny, generous, witty, caring...I could go on and on with the adjectives that describe a beautiful life lived on her own terms. She loved deeply...especially her family...but even the friends she never met physically and only interacted with on the internet. She was creative...an artist, a poet, an author. I will miss you so much Sis. Rest in peace, soar with the angels....Love never dies.

“ Thomas Clyde - Cousin posted a condolence I got to know Sandi via Facebook. We chatted often. She had a funny sense of humor and made me laugh. Because of Sandi I felt my family grow. I got in touch with so many relatives I never had contact with before. She was so kind to me when my mother passed away 6 years ago. We chatted and talked about her losing her husband. She helped me so much to feel like it was okay to express my pain. Many of our family members have a Grandmother and Great Grandmother in common. Sandi is now with her, as well, as her wonderful Mother and Father. She said we are family and we will always be no matter what. It's so hard to say good bye to someone you love so much. My condolences go to her son, daughter, fantastic sisters, grandchildren and many, many Cousins who will miss her very much. She will live on in all of our hearts forever.

“ Jaimie Gonzales - Cousin posted a condolence Although we will not physically be there for your celebration of life, we are in spirit, across the miles. Having connected via Facebook with Sandi six years ago has brought so much more to my life, so much family that we have gotten to know thanks to her. And although we are connected by marriage I feel as though I am blood related. Sandi's love for family, and life, was one in the same as mine (we must have blood ties somewhere in us). My heart just breaks for her family. I will miss our Facebook banter that I so looked forward to each day. I am so grateful for Sandi's friendship, a friendship that I will treasure for years to come. Rest in Peace my dear friend.

“ ALISA A. ZAITA - Daughter posted a condolence This is a poem written by my Mom to her beloved husband. She loved to write and express herself through her writing. My mother would always bring herself out of the darkest of trials and still keep a sunny disposition, it was a child like quality and she owned it. I guess when there comes a time that we stop seeing awe in the world, then the world itself becomes a darker place. Rest in peace Mom, as you know Joe's earthly sign to me were wishes, please don't let yours be vampires because there is just no way I could possibly handle that in life right now. I love you very much, I always will.
