“ In a vivid dream, Sandy and Willie visited me this morning. (April 30, 2022)

We were discussing the differences between city and country living and making breakfast. It was a Good Morning.

I had lost contact with Sandy after I moved 10 years ago from Florida to be near my family in Washington state. Searching the web I found this obituary listing. Just want you all to know she was always a dear friend and we had so many great adventures together. One time we were shopping in a second hand clothing store and snagged the woman standing nearby to help us, which she did and did very well for some time. Then, she told us she had to leave....she wasn't a clerk helping us, just a nice lady. We laughed about this for a long time.

*I am now almost 84 and expect my final move sometime in the near future. Then, I'll have a chance to thank them both for visiting me this morning and we'll continue our friendship into eternity.
Thank you for posting her passing last April.*

“ We only knew Sandy a short time but her spirit for life was remarkable and her sense of humor a delight. Most meaningful to us was Sandy's incredible love for her family and her gratitude for your support!

“ *Those we Love ❤️ don't go away
They walk beside us Everyday
Unseen Unheard but Always Near
Still Loved Still Missed and Very Dear
I will Always Love her
Forever Miss Her
So many lessons I take from the wisdom she imparted the priorities in life
And how you can Never have enough
Family!
Until we meet again..
Your other daughter ~

“ A note from my mom:

Life is amazing and then it's awful and then it's amazing again. And in between the amazing and the awful it's ordinary and mundane and routine. Breathe in the amazing, hold on through the awful relax and exhale during the ordinary. That's just living heart-breaking, soul healing, amazing, awful, ordinary life. And it's breathtakingly beautiful.

I will miss you.
