

Sandra "Sandy" VanVoorhis

February 27, 1943 - October 27, 2024

Sandra VanVoorhis (Sandy)

Sandy VanVoorhis passed away peacefully with her children by her side on October 27, 2024 at the age of 81.

Sandy is survived by her children Patty (Chuck) LaPeters, Nancy VanVoorhis and Jon (Caitlin) VanVoorhis, along with her grandchildren Taylor LaPeters, Samantha Gabbai, Henry VanVoorhis, Finn VanVoorhis and Oliver VanVoorhis.

Sandy was born on February 27, 1943, in Columbus, Ohio and moved with her young family to Central Florida in 1975. She began working at what is now Orlando Health in 1983 and remained a loyal team member for over 35 years. While she had a wonderful career, her favorite title was always grandma. Her love of family knew no bounds.

In keeping with her wishes, there will not be a public service. The family will be gathering for an informal open house at the beach, aka her happy place, the setting for so many beautiful memories.

The gathering will be held in New Smyrna Beach on Saturday, November 9 to celebrate a life well lived.

Please contact Patty, Nancy or Jon for details if you would like to stop by.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation in Sandy's memory to the Orlando Health Foundation, directed to the Orlando Health Cancer Institute. (<https://give.orlandohealth.com/give/389682/>)

“ One of my favorite memories has to be when I got to experience her saying “Jezel Cripes!” instead of “Jesus Christ!” for the first time. I was in the car with my mom, dad, and gma and we were in Fort Myers, FL. We were driving around looking at the old house gma used to live in when she was younger. While outside of this house, in the car, she reacts to something with “JEZEL CRIPES!” and the ensuing eruption of laughter will always make me smile. I love you grandma sandy, rest in peace.
