“ ann dunipace - niece posted a condolence Dear Sandra and Sara Jane and families, Your mother and grandmother has been one of my favorite people on earth for many years. I didn't realize this until right now, which amazes me! I haven't seen her for, probably, over 40 years which also amazes me plus it makes me sad. My Aunt Sara was a unique individual, in my opinion. We never played bridge together, but we discussed many hands and how they should be played (or should have been played!) We never disagreed about bridge or about anything. I always and forever loved and respected her BUT...I think that she was the first person who ever respected me and wasn't afraid to show it. That's huge to me, and I'll never forget it or forget her. We were all SO fortunate to have had her in our lives! Love to you, my cousins! Ann

“ ann dunipace - niece posted a condolence Dear Sandra and Sara Jane and children....I sure do join you in mourning the death of your mom, grandmother and my Aunt Sara. I also am celebrating her life and the privilege of sharing it with her, and with you! She was, indeed, one of a kind and will be missed by all who knew her (at the bridge table and elsewhere!!) Love to you....Ann

“ Judy Sockman Scherff - friend posted a condolence To Sara's family, such a loving, caring person Sara was. Loved our scrabble games on our iPads. She always beat me but I looked forward every evening to our matches. Sometimes we had six going at a time. Sara was a neighbor in Bowling Green and a teacher to my children. Lots of fond memories. Will miss her. Please accept my condolences. Judy Sockman Scherff

“ Susan Breig - FRIEND posted a condolence My deepest condolences to this amazing lady's family. I have known Sara for many years and thought the world of her. What a loving person - and a good bridge player. I don't mean to make light of the situation, but Sara would understand. God bless her. She is in a happy place now and I know her family knows this. She had a good life. We shall miss her.
