“ Salvatore Guarino - Baby Grandson posted a condolence Grandma,I cant belive it is almost 2 years.It feels like just yesterday you and I were sitting around the television with Grandpa watching American Idol.I remember the time I spilled Iced Tea in the kitchen and Grandpa got mad.You were there to cheer me up and tell me that it was just an accident.I want you to know that we will see eachother again very soon.I want you to be the one that welcomes to heaven.I miss you and I love you!Not a day goes by I dont think of you.Love you always and forever.

“ Jessica - 2nd granddaughter posted a condolence Grandma, I miss you so much, more then you will ever know! I love you dearly and life without you is never going to be the same. You were the rock in this family grandma! But I guess the good die young, huh?!?! I just wanna say sorry for all the attitudes grandma. I will cherish all the memories we shared together from the days I could remember. From tucking me in, to reading be bed time stories, to yelling at me, to you lecturing me, and I will never forget how noseey you were. But, in the end, now I know all you did was love me and cared about me and was always worried!!! Thank you for helping me thru life and always being there when I was always scared to go to mom and dad!!! I love you grandma and may you rest peacefully now..I will see you at the gates!!!! You will always be missed HUGZ AND KISSES xoxoxo

“ Gerry - Old Long Island Friend posted a condolence I was so sorry to learn that Sara died. Even after all these years, I can still she her face, hear her infectous laugh. No doubt, she and my late brother Michael are sharing a good laugh or two on the other side over old times. Sara was memorable, a wonderful person with a heart of gold. My deepest sympathy to the family on their profound loss.
