“ Linda & Dale - Niece & Nephew posted a condolence Lynn, I remember all the summers and winters at your home on Union Lake in MI. The swimming and ice skating. But I can still see your Mom sweeping the sand from the house on those hot summer days. She was a fun lady. The memories will always be in my heart.

“ Colleen Vollmer - Great-Niece posted a condolence We have so many great memories of Aunt Sarah. While reading the other condolences it reminded me of how much she was so like her sister Lalah, my Grandma. I bet they're sipping hot tea in heaven today. We'll miss her. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Love, Colleen, Doug, Dougie and Joshua.

“ Betty Thompson - friend of Lynn and family posted a condolence I Have some good memories of GG this is the only name I knew for her - when I would go with Lynn. Kevin and GG to Kozy Korner after Lynn would close up curves. GG would always be cold she would have her denim jacket with her to put on - she always got her hot tea and would ask for more hot water but she would use same tea bag. She will be missed.
