“ I am so deeply sorry for your loss! Sarah was a ray of sunshine and seeing her excitement over a rollercoaster ride on Thundremountain, or greeting the Santa Parade in your neighborhood reminded me that joy is close by, you just need to appreciate it! Although we never met, face to face, she affected my life in the most wonderful way! Thank you Sarah for your bubbly self, and thank you to Debbie and family for sharing Sarah with me! Sending you all love and light!

“ Ray and I first memory of Sarah and the family was meeting them at Fort Wilderness Campground when I had the privilege of decorating the camper in princess decor. Sarah was delighted with the special touches. She melted my heart from that very 1st day. Though the years we saw them , seem like all the time at Fort Wilderness Campground, driving a golf cart around or hanging around a fire. Our last memory of Sarah was this past Christmas at the Fort, it was one of the happiest I had seen Sarah, full of smiles, she put out her hand in a princess reach asking for a kiss. That was so precious, us being a stranger in passing in Sarah's life, however reaching out to our hearts, to forever touch it ...with that one gesture and HUGE SMILE my husband and I will remember Sarah, as Forever a Princess!
