“ Arlene Sturgill - friend posted a condolence Sarah, all those years you were friend with KC and I never met you face to face. And when I finally did get to meet you it was to deliver something to you from KC and to say goodbye. I feel God blessed me with that opportunity, if even for just a few brief moments, to meet you and tell you how special you are. You gave my son hope and courage to face all the adversities he resides in. And you showed me compassion when times were tough for me to accept. I know you are in Heaven, reunited with your mom and others who have gone before you. And I know that you will be there, smiling and happy, ready to greet those who follow behind. Roxanne, you had a great sister and you ARE a wonderful sister. You always reached out to her no matter what and you are seeing her through to the very end. She was blessed to have you as her sister, friend, caregiver and confidante. My condolences to the rest of the family.
