“ Jennifer Buhl - Great niece posted a condolence Our hearts are broken at the loss of Aunt Sandy. She reminded me so much of my grand-dad Mills. Thank you for sharing the beautiful photos. Thank you for reaching out to me about the family reunion in Virginia, I can't believe that was just 5 short years ago. Meeting you again helped me realize where so much about myself (the Mills) comes from. I will miss your smile and your kind, honest and loving words of wisdom. I will always think of you when I wear my bracelet. I am so thankful and grateful for the memories. Sending love from Michigan.

“ Beth - Daughter posted a condolence I don't even know where to begin, but to tell you how SO VERY MUCH I Loved You!!! You were such a wonderful, loving mother! you did not have an easy early life, but after you met Dad, love just followed you!!! You and Dad were the best parents any child would aspire to be!!! You were not only my mother, but truly one of most precious best friends! You taught me so much!!! One of the best lessons, was to be humble and kind! The other was to treat others as you would treat yourself! I have passed this on to my own daughters! You were so funny at times, yet so shy! I know as you got older, the shyness wore off, and you spoke your mind, sometimes a little too much!! You were such a creative, artistic person. I just wish everyone could have seen what you could have done with that!! Your loving touches, and special hugs and kisses will never be forgotten!!! Hope you are rekindling your romance and love with Dad!!! You and he were so cute together!!!
