Though it has been a long time since I have seen Sean, I remember what a fantastic guy he was and an even better friend. Back in the mid 90's, we hung out and his laugh was infectious and always made others laugh and have a good time that were with him. Sean could make you laugh and feel better no matter how bad your day was. Rest in peace in brother and know you are truly missed by so many.

“ Though I was an interloper, both Sean and Erica treated me like a brother. He taught me to play chess when I was 9. I still think of him every time I play. He is missed, he is loved, he is with my father. -b “ Sean was like a brother to me when I was young, took me fishing at redbug park, where I caught that poor turtle and he had to get the hook out of it's mouth. Also took me to play baseball even though I sucked at it, and countless hours of playing mutant league football on the Sega. And many other good memories. I haven't seen him much in the last decade and times like this remind us all how fragile life is and the time we take for granted.

“ Sean, while I never was officially introduced to you, I do know you made quite the impression on Dakota. His first introduction was during his and Amanda's 8th grade field trip where you chaperoned. He came home from that field trip having had a blast. That was around the time Amanda came into our lives and joined us on many excursions over the years. Amanda has become such a loved extended family member. After seeing some of the photos she has posted over the years, I can safely say you contributed to her some of her goofiness and adventurous spirit...which we love! I know Kota is/was very fond of you and I wish I had been given the opportunity to get to know you. Please keep looking over Amanda as she grieves your loss. May we meet on the other side and share some stories over a bottle of sake (inside joke for Amanda and Kota).

“ Sean was a good man to his friends and family. He always knew what to say when things weren't good in someone's life and needed some guidance in the right direction. He always could make the most out of every moment, if something was boring and not going well he would immediately turn that around with corny jokes and laughter. I will never forget the first time I met Sean, I thought he was the funniest person on the face of this planet, his wonderful daughter Amanda had no choice but to have me in her group for our 8th grade field trip to Epcot we had so much fun and he let us do everything we all wanted to do. We had so much fun we almost missed the bus to get home. We had to of run about a mile, and that mile was laughter and joy the whole way out the park. I will also never forget playing with him on his softball team. So many fun nights until they tried to disqualify him for having me and another kid playing(it was an adult league). He fought for almost an hour so we could play and have the most out of the game. Unfortunately they did call it but Sean was not letting it go that easy he talked to the other team and even though the officials told us “no”, we played on through the night. Sean was a good man and was always there when I needed him. May he rest In peace and my condolences to everyone close to him.

“ My beautiful Amanda I will never forget the time after you were born and I came over to see all of you in your apartment. You were not feeling good and mommy went to the pharmacy. Sean was holding you and was so worried because you cried so much. I took you in my arms and rocked you to sleep. I could see the worry in your dad's eyes and how much he loved you. I know in my heart he will always watch over his babygirl. He is your special angel. Love you so much and you have Angels all over watching you my dear Goddaughter

Ruby, This reminded me of the time Sean was home alone with baby Amanda and her belly button cord fell off while he was changing her. I came home to find Amanda on the couch and Sean over her in a panic over the belly button cord. I explained it's supposed to fall off and he was so relieved. Men with little babies 😊💕

“ Sean, our memories span over 30 years. We were forever bonded and friends by the love we shared for our baby girl, Amanda Rae. You were so worried about her health and in our last conversation you told me how much you loved her and how important Amanda was to you. I promise I will take care of Amanda here on earth and I know you will be watching over her from up above. My mom told me yesterday that she hoped Dino was there to greet you in Heaven. You will be forever loved and missed. Love, Catherine
