“ Jim and Noleen Burch - Father & Step Mother posted a condolence Sam's children were his world and they will need all of us to help them heal and move forward as they grow up. Brittany, Sammy, Jr., Zach and Annaleigh will have our love and support and memories of their Dad as they mature. This is how we can honor Sam and the love he had for them. So, rest easy now, Sam. We will always love you and will always be there for your children.

“ Charlie & Denise Weaver - Uncle / Aunt posted a condolence Sam – Even though you are no longer walking this Earth, you will be with us forever. You are in God's hands and now at peace enjoying the rest you so fully deserve. No more battles to fight, no pain to endure, only the comfort of knowing you'll always have a place in our hearts. Although we will miss you dearly, Heaven has gained a true Guardian Angel. Rest in peace our beloved Nephew.

“ Bill Burch - Uncle posted a condolence Sammy - I'm going to miss you. You were the first male in your generation to continue the Burch name. When brother Jim had you become his first son, he rejoiced and immediately accepted you as if you were his own flesh. Your brothers did that as well. Troubles found you, and life became hard - from all reports you had turned a corner and became the dad we knew you had in you. No more pain or discomfort, nephew. God Bless You.

“ James Burch - Youngest Brother posted a condolence Sam, You were one of the best older brothers that I could ever have had asked for. I will miss you and love you big brother. You were always there for me when I needed it. Always making me laugh or smile during the hardest of times. Now that your fight is over, rest easy big brother and know that I will think about you always. Love, Your Little Brother.

“ Amy Morris - cousin posted a condolence While I had not seen Sam in many years, I kept up with him through my Aunt Noleen and Uncle Jim. I was proud to consider him a cousin, though we were teenagers when our families joined together. Recently, Sam and I became Facebook friends and it was wonderful to see how he loved his children and his brothers, Michael and James. I looked forward to getting to know him more over the years. Please know that I am praying, as are many others, that God will strengthen you and flood your mind with beautiful memories to help heal your broken spirits. God loved Sam and He loves you. - Amy Haynes Morris, Richmond, Virginia
