“ Many memories come to mind when I think of Sheila, some happy, some sad. The one that stands out is on Halloween about 5 years ago. It was after 9 PM, I turned off all the lights and got ready for bed when I heard knocking on the door. I looked out of the window and saw 2 figures, in costume, standing at the door. Scared, I would not open the door and asked them to leave. They kept pounding on the door and when I threaten to call the police they walked away. I watched and was horrified to see them walk up the driveway of Sheila's house. It was then I realized the those two people pounding on door were dear Sheila and her Mom. The three of us laughed about it many times. You will be sadly missed my dear friend and neighbor, but will always be in my heart along with Mike.
Peace to you, Kay
