“ Sherry is safe in the arms of Jesus now, in the Land of No More. I know the hurt seems so unbearable but just remember, He knows when we have had enough and that is when He allows us safe passage to the Land of No More. All tears, suffering, worry and pain is no more. Praying for your strength as you lean on the arms of Jesus.

“ Sherry, my heart is heavy and has been since God called you home. We have been good friends since 1st grade and this will remain in death. I miss and love you my dear friend.

My prayers and empathies are with the Cummings and Bolden family. I know there are no words at this time that can ease your pains. But hopefully the comfort that Sherry is no longer in pain will in time bring each ONE of you peace. I pray that remembering her laughter, beautiful smile and kind heart will forever bring you joy. I pray this with God's Blessing and Love!

“ I remember when I first met Sherry...Danny was the first one in our generation to get married and brought her to my Aunt Gwen's house in Jax. Fl.... we were all excited about meeting the new addition to the family. Anyway, I just fell in love with her...she was such a sweet, kind, and wonderful person....she just fit right in with all of us....Sherry, I am glad I had the opportunity to know you....so glad you were a part of my family. You will be truly missed. I will love you always.
