“ God bless Shirley and all her sweet family. Our hearts are with you all.

Her love of life was evident and now you are blessed with so many happy memories and fun stories, and have peace knowing how wonderful you were to her and how amazing you made the last few years for her.

With all our love, Forrest and Mary

“ I miss you so much already, but have comfort knowing you're looking over all of us with Papa!! I'll never forget when I was about ten years old and we were picking up Katie from her high school and some "high school punks" were trying to cut you off and you looked at me, laughed and said these kids are messing with the wrong Grandma and you hit the gas! Safe to say that they didn't end up cutting us off! I love and miss you Gram!!

“ My heart goes out to all of Shirley's great big Family! Heidi you can be assured that not only was it a gift that you were able to share these last few years with her, but know that you gave her the gift of living these last few years! Had you not moved her close to you, she probably would not have survived the years that she did! The gift goes both ways! With all our Love, Graham and Trish

“ Gram, I am so happy to have shared these last couple of years with you here in Florida, and for your Great Grandson to have gotten to know and love you. You always made me laugh, and much to the chagrin of everyone else, I loved to egg you on. Even through these last rough weeks, I am so glad to have shared every second with you. Know that you are loved by your family and that we will miss you dearly. Love you Gram! Jayme

“ Mom, I feel as though the final chapter of your life has been a gift sent to me from God.
We were able to share such joy, laughter and a whole lot of craziness. I never knew from day to day just exactly what I might walk into as I entered Oakmonte. I sat outside the "principals" office more than once to see what joy or shenanigans you had gotten into since my last visit. One thing was certain, you brought a smile and grin to all the staff and visitors you came in contact with. We're all going to miss you and your beautiful smile and sense of humor. All my love Heidi
