“ Our sympathy goes out to Sandy and her family. Aunt Shirley was a lady of charm and grace, who had a zest for life. (And always had a great suntan!) Her family, the Ameys, were a big family and had many get-togethers. I remember steak-frys on the Mississippi, boat rides, picnics at parks, Riverview Amusement Park in Chicago near Don and Ag's apartment, visiting Ella in Indiana and Junior in Kentucky. Her parents, Leah and Matt Amey, and Aunt Tony lived near Smittys in Clinton. Grandpa Amey was a huge story-teller. Most of this family is gone now, Mary, Don, Junior, Tarzie. At the end of a long life there are not many friends and family who knew her as a vital woman who was liked by all, but there are a few of us who do remember and will never forget her.
