“ Sue, I was so sorry to hear just today that your beloved Stan and soulmate passed away, I know it's not easy and I'm here for you if you want to talk. I remember all the prayers and emails Stan sent when my Henry was ill and I will always remember the time when we were heading back to NC and we ran into you and Stan at Bob Evans in Lake Mary and we talked for over an hour.

I'm sure Henry was right at the gates of Heaven to welcome Stan home.

My Condolences and deepest sympathy

*Love,
Patti Choate*

“ Stan and Sue became friends of ours several years ago. My wife and I sold Sue her Avon. We have very few customers who I actually sit and chat with. Sue and Stan were just that, people who I could sit and chat with. When Stan learned of my computer issues, he offered me his laptop. I was so moved by his human-ness and compassion, not to mention his religious ties. Stan is now relieved of all his pain and suffering. He was a wonderful man and I enjoyed chatting with him as often as possible. RIP my dear friend.
