

Stephanie J. Smith

January 19, 1969 - October 4, 2017

Stephanie Jeaneen Smith (Clary) was born on January 19, 1969 in Orlando, Florida to Sandy Giorella (Crew)(Jerry Giorella) and Pat Clary. In 1999, She was married to Brantley Smith of Winter Park, FL. She blessed the world with 5 amazing children; Jared, Mason (Erwin), Caleb, Louden and Lindsay. She leaves behind her grandmother, Edith Crew, brother, Commander USCG Frank DelRosso (Eileen), sisters Dione Larkin (John), Sebrina Dwyer (Charles), Step-brother Nick Giorella (Jennifer), Christina Giorella, and her beloved neices and nephews; Emily, Jacob, Eric, Chandler, Rachel, Zoe, Maya, Payton, Kaden, and Cooper, as well as numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

Stephanie attended Lyman High School and The Aveda Institute in Tallahassee, FL. She was a member of Orangewood PCA Church before moving to French Camp Academy in Mississippi where she ministered to at-risk children. Upon leaving Mississippi in 2006, she moved to Tallahassee, where her family still resides.

She loved The Lord with all of her heart. She shared that love with everyone she met. Whether she was helping young mothers, mothering her children, playing tennis, or cutting hair, she always followed the greatest command: Love one another as I have loved you (John 13:34).
