“ Paula Johnson Metzler - 1974 DHHS Student/ Life-time friend posted a condolence Thank you for being Exactly who you are.... No.... I am certain.... For myself.... I will never bring myself to say "For who you 'were'." Because you will live forever in my heart.... You had such an profound impact on so many.... Iff I'd come across some one who had also attended Dixie... even if they didn't remember anything else about Dixie... You were always remembered. Loved and Respected... My heart is saddened... Yet, so Grateful I had the pleasure of having you touch my life. I know you have Beautiful Wings watching down over many of us....

“ Joshua Taylor - Student & friend posted a condolence I only had Steve for one sociology class but I've carried everything I learned in his class and everything from our friendship afterward ever since through life. I am now a teacher and have often thought about how something I am teaching could be taught in a Mr. P style. He will be missed but everyone he met carries a part of him with them and in that way we can all celebrate this extraordinary man's life.

“ Barbara Thibodeau - Former student/friend posted a condolence Thank you for being an amazing, memorable teacher. You challenged my mind. You opened my eyes. I gained more substance and understanding about people and issues in your sociology class than I have in any other class since. You were an amazing mentor and friend who was there for me during some trying times in my young life, always listening, never quick to judge. I hope life treated you well in the days since I last saw you. You will never be forgotten!

“ Janet Sullivan-Lowry - DHHS Student posted a condolence A Teacher for All Seasons A teacher is like Spring, Who nurtures new green sprouts, Encourages and leads them, Whenever they have doubts. A teacher is like Summer, Whose sunny temperament, Makes studying a pleasure, Preventing discontent. A teacher is like Fall, With methods crisp and clear, Lessons of bright colors And a happy atmosphere. A teacher is like Winter, While it's snowing hard outside, Keeping students comfortable, As a warm and helpful guide. Teacher, you do all these things, With a pleasant attitude; You're a teacher for all seasons, And you have my gratitude! By Joanna Fuchs
