“ Oh Sue, it's hard to put into words how much I will miss you. I wish I had one more opportunity to say Thank You for my Derek. It is an honor to be his wife and to have been your daughter in law for 32 years.

I will always remember your love for playing cards, all the cooking lessons you taught me through the years, your beautiful smile, and especially the sweet time of being together watching the birds and enjoying each other's company.

Derek, Lainey and I will be sure and share you with Scottie and Chambers. They will know how much you loved them.

Because of Jesus and his free gift of eternal life to those who believe, I find great peace in knowing we will be reunited in heaven one day.

I will always be grateful for you, your patience with me, and your love for my family.

Until we meet again....

I love you, Shelley

“ For many, mother-in-law jokes have a ring of reality, especially for me. But I still had the “Perfect” mother-in-law. From the very beginning, I was totally accepted by her ..... LOL. She would be rolling her eyes right now and she wouldn't care if you seen her doing it. No she didn't welcome me from day one. But I always understood why. Afterall, she was giving up her precious daughter, with whom I was going to share my life with, a woman I'm proud to say, has become the “Perfect” wife.

For nearly 20 years, she was an example and inspiration to me and my family. My perfect mother-in-law deserves garlands, not wreaths. Praises, not tears. Smiles, not sorrows. Happiness, not sadness.

My Mother-in-law had great strength and she was filled with wisdom. She had her on special way of showing and setting the example for strength and compassion and for honor and love.

But even in grief, we know we are so lucky to have had this loving woman in our lives and now in our hearts forever. A good mother-in-law is worth hundreds of wishes. But the perfect mother-in-law is immeasurable. I was blessed. I love you and you are missed.

Love, Jonathan
