

Tammy Fennell

July 30, 1970 - September 26, 2024

"Tammy Fennell, 54, passed away unexpectedly at her residence in Sanford, Florida, on September 26, 2024.

Tammy was born on July 30, 1970, in Orlando, Florida, to her parents Lena and Oliver Fennell, who preceded her in death. A lifelong Floridian, Tammy built a fulfilling life and career in her home state, where she touched many lives with her kindness and dedication.

She is survived by her brother, Victor Fennell of Michigan, as well as numerous aunts and cousins in Central Florida. Tammy will be dearly missed by all who knew her.

Tammy spent much of her professional life as a realtor with Coldwell Banker, where she was known for her commitment to helping others find their perfect homes. More recently, she embraced a new adventure, working as a flight attendant for Spirit Airlines. Beyond her work, Tammy was a devoted volunteer for causes close to her heart, including the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society and Toys for Tots.

Cremation services have been performed by DeGusipe Funeral Home in Maitland, Florida
