“ Terry was my oldest friend & I loved him because he was such a good person. We stayed friends through junior high, Ponce de Leon class of 61, high school (he had the misfortune to go to Southwest High), his years in the military, Lieutenant in Viet Nam during the worst of it, marriages, divorces, jobs, and day to day life. As kids, we hung out at the field behind the old Coliseum in Coral Gables and played ball there at every opportunity. We ruled the back of the bus! Singing “My Little Runaway” by Del Shannon, and hitting all the high notes, puberty was still lurking in the background, it was a great time. We stayed friends through the years and miles of separation. It didn’t matter because as soon as we were back together the time and miles vanished and we started a new chapter. His Christmas card just arrived. Mine to him is sitting on the dining room table. He will always be part of some of my very beat memories. Aaarrrrouuugh! Damn it! Aaarrrrouuugh!

What a lovely tribute Ralph. Terry came late into our part of the family but we loved him as much as if he had been there all along. I'm so glad he had a friend like you.
