“ Aunt Eileen called me often. I live in Ohio. We had a blast. Our calls were lengthy and I'm so glad they were, we had so much to cram into them. The memory is of laughter. Pure, unadulterated laughter. We were "on the same page." Aunt Eileen helped me with life's little snags, and gave me great advise. I loved her stories. She was my last aunt. How sad I am about that. I grieve so much since she passed. I loved her. I'll always miss her. My memories are precious and many. God bless the family. God bless Aunt Eileen. And God bless me as I seek His comfort and my acceptance that she is gone. God speed, Aunt Eileen. You will be missed.
