Tribute Wall

“ Dad, Christmas is almost here and this will be our second without you. I miss taking dinner to you and sitting down, eating with you and listening to your stories. You were a special man, dad. Your life was so much more that what I knew by the time I came along and married Bruce. You can be proud of you military service and all your hard work. You helped to raise a good family and you were a good man. I hope you are where you can spend Christmas with Ma because I know those were your happiest. We all love and miss you.

“ Dad, I was blessed to have you as my father-in-law. You were always so sweet and kind to me. I loved it when I first met you and you teased me about seeing Elvis in the parking lot. You put a very nervous lady at ease from the very beginning. You lived a life you can be proud of and your legacy will live on in the hearts of all who love you. You are finally free to be with Ma. Now your happiness is complete. Rebecca

As close friends to Marsha and Tom, we saw many years of love and dedication to Tom's father. Tom, your father is now looking over you and thanks you for your many trips to his house, your love and the many things you did to make his life more comfortable. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers.
