“ My love and thoughts are with all of Tom's family. He was a good friend, knew how to laugh, and was always ready to have fun. I haven't seen him in years, but will always remember him.

“ I remember years ago he was my neighbor at an apartment complex I used to live at. Things were kind of hard at home sometimes. I was a young man, about 17 or so. He said anytime I ever needed to talk or if I ever needed a place to go and get away for a bit, his door was open. I took him up on that a couple times, and he always made me feel better and was always straight up and honest with me. He even used to take me to the gym sometimes to try and find a positive outlet. During that time of my life when he was my neighborhood, he always looked out for me, always tried to give me good advice, and really cared. He was a good man, and the world is less without him in it.
