“ Our hearts go out to you All. When Brian stopped to inform us of Tim's passing it was a total empty feeling. Tim was a great guy. It was great to see him while he visiting Donna and Dave last year in La Crosse. To be able to remanence about our childhood while seeing the houses we grew up in were priceless. Will miss you my friend!!

“ Tim was an amazing young man, I remember when he came to Seattle and we all went out for dinner. I just remember thinking of how sweet this guy was and how lucky I was to get to hang out with him. We were cousins and I have some fond memories of him. Praying for peace and comfort for family and friends that are grieving and that they find peace in Jesus. Healer, Comforter, Author of life.

I'm praying he was a believer and that he is now reunited with our Lord and Savior, Jesus.

John 14:27

New International Version

“ Tim was such a good friend in high school and college, but unfortunately we had lost touch since then. Just a few years ago while I was back in Bloomington Tim randomly walked into the same restaurant I was at and I feel so lucky that we got to have dinner and reconnect. Just a beautiful person and so much fun to be around. Everyone who I've relayed this sad news to has had a fun story about Tim to lift our spirits. He was one of a kind and will be truly missed. My sincere condolences are with all of you and his family.

“ Tim was one of the most amazing, kind and gentle souls I've had the pleasure of meeting. He would always greet me with a smile and compliment. He would literally take the shirt off his back for a complete stranger if good came from it. Our last conversation was him telling the story of how he meet Jill. Exciting for the up and coming Trip to Italy. He loved everyone but had a special place in his heart for his wife. Tim you be missed but never forgotten. So many tears since his death. So many life's touched. We're often told about the impact people make in our life's. It's easy tell you made so many smiles in such a little time. RIP my friend

“ I just learned of Tim's passing. I'm so sorry for your loss. Even though we weren't in touch, my heart feels grieved. I've always kept my cousins close in heart. I have a sweet memory of when Tim was younger and we were visiting at Grandma and Granpa Black's house; he sat at their kitchen table telling jokes and his bubbly laugh was so cute and contageous.(((♥)))
