“ Timothy,

It has taken me this long to publicly say anything about your passing. I would've never imagined that you would be called home so soon. Thus, leaving Blake and I here to try and understand the reasons why. It hurts more than I could have ever dreamed of. For you left us without you and I ever reconciling. That being said, I will not live the rest of my life with regret for it was His will that you leave this earth in this manner.

It has been 8 months since you were called home. So much of my life was you. From the time I was 18, you were in my life. We came together under God's will and created our son, Blake Nathaniel. Tim, he is the most amazing gift I have ever had from you. There have been so many amazing moments for which I wish you could've seen and been there for. He reminds me so much of you. I always tell him how much of you is in him. I tell him so many things about us. All the good things that allowed us to come together and fall in love so many years ago. He is so good, Tim. So beautiful in every way. You would be so proud. So so very proud of him. He is you in almost every aspect. I try to make sense of the reasons why. Why you had to leave us so soon. He has brought us all so close. Nothing makes sense anymore. And as much as we all try to understand, it will be one of life's mysteries.

Dad has been here to help. He misses you beyond words. Everyone does. Dave, Dad, Matthew, Jennifer, Mama-in-law ... everyone and yes, me too. You had so much life, so much love, so much everything.

I am constantly speaking of you to our precious baby boy. I tell him all the stories of his mom and dad. He always has the hugest smile on his face. But most importantly, you are always, always alive here in our home. I always remind him of how much you loved him, how important he was to you and how proud you were/are of him... always.

Words cannot really express enough what Blake and I have gone through since God called you home. But, I can promise you this Timothy, I will continue what we started 18 years ago. To move that beautiful precious gift from God forward and to always keep you alive here so that he continues to know you and who you were. I know in my heart you would want that and I will, as long as I'm alive, keep that promise.

I love you, Timothy. Always from here to eternity.

Your Mickey.

“ Thank you for all of the tributes given in honor Timothy Martin lea. He was, is and will always be my "Superman" . For the past 11 years we have been together and experienced the most beautiful relationship.

Timothy, you were my best friend and spiritual partner. "my husband" with God's blessing shining upon our relationship and our family. Your presence in my life blessed me in every way. Your laugh, your love, your caring, your protection, your passion carried through everything you did. We shared our lives and proved that relationships founded in God, faith and truth could bloom and bring beauty. Thank you for setting an example to our boys. You showed them how to be a good father, a good husband, a good son and be a good Christian. You brought light, laughter, love, happiness and contentment into my life. I miss you with every breath I take and look for you in every moment of every day. I look around and you are everywhere, we were together everyday and our home is not the same without you. 90 days gone..... Still not sure where to go from here. Love, kisses and blessings to you Timothy. Forever your J-LA

“ Tim, words cannot explain what an awesome day me, you, and Michelle had watching your son wrestle. You possess the quality that I admire most, and that was your ability to make me feel like I have known you for years even though I had just met you. We had many great conversations and laughs (at the referee specifically) and I will cherish those memories for the rest of my life. Please watch over Michelle and Blake for me, I love them both so much, and I know you do too. <3 I know you are with our creator and living in paradise, waiting for the day to be reunited with all your loved ones. :)

“ Tim, It is so hard to believe you are no longer with us, but the memories will live on forever. You were a good friend, co-worker, and father, but GOD has bigger plans for you because I know you are with GOD Almighty. Our prayers are with your family, especially your son, Blake.

“ Timothy - you have been in my life for 23 years, you helped me grow through my teenage years and beyond. You married my beautiful sister and together gave me the most handsome, intelligent, and strong willed nephew, Blake! You will be missed by many, loved by more, and held close in our hearts until we one day meet again. My love, prayers, and thoughts will remain with your family, my family, and to the very strong and beautiful, Miss Jennifer and Caleb. Rest in Peace with our Lord. I love you Tim Tim. ~ Katrina & Scott and family.
