“ I never wrote on here to you my lost brother. I am in tears writing you now. I think of you often and the many wild and great times we had. You had a different sense of humor I enjoyed and miss so much. I haven't lived well with many but when we did We gave Orlando some hell. 140 mph on the Fairbanks curves of I-4 at 3 AM the car changed about 3 lanes by itself, the cherry came off your cigarette and was flying around inside the car, I was scared to death, I looked over at you. You busted out laughing and yelled."re-entry" just one of hundreds of moments you took the edge off. XFL pregame, 1st and only season we pregamed 4 hours before every game. A gentleman and his wife approached Tim, he said ... hey you wanna see my wife's t&ts? With all of us looking on, Tim looked her up and down and says "naw I'm good man" I will never forget that roar of laughter. Tim and I supported a downtown rock and roll bar called Janie Lanes Sunset Strip, they got most of our paychecks back then but we had the times of our lives in and out of that place. Thank you Todd and Sherry , I am missing Tim so much.... I just lost my mother and wish I was there for him more.

“ Tim was a friend of a close friend to me and got me a job at Abraham Amusements back in 1988. I have happily been at the same job to this day. His recommendation back then has allowed me a wonderful career and I dont know that I thanked him for that. Thank you Tim and Rest in peace!
