I can have a day with out tears now but your still my first and last thought. This yeat has also been the shortest year. When I think of you it seems like yeaterday. I relive that day everyday and pray to god to change it. I know your gone from my life but not from my heart. I love you maybe even more now . I will always love you.*

“ To My Uncle, Todd

My heart broke when I heard of your passing. I wish I could fly back through time to the happier moments of childhood to see your smiling face. I try to remember the moments and they are so faded. Memories that fade in and out are of you in cowboy boots and you goofing around with uncle Pat. I don't remember you in pain and I am happy for that. You were such a happy person to be around and that is what I want to hold on to. I am sorry for the distance that time has place between you and I. I wish things could have been different. I hope you know if you didn't know before that you are loved. I love you my Uncle Todd and thank you for being part of my life.

Your Niece,

Bonnie

To My Aunt, Billie

I thank you for loving my uncle. I know he let you in when he couldn't let anyone else in. Your a beautiful and special woman. My uncle was so blessed to have you in his life as are we. I hope you know that we are here for you. Whether to sit in silence with or to have a good belly aching laugh with. You are a very special part of this family. I hope you take these hands of love and let them wrap around you.

*I love you,
Bonnie*

“ Dear Billie,

I am so sorry to hear of Todd's passing. I meant him as a patient but came to think of him as a friend. He helped me thru my pain and taught me so much. I will forever be indebted to him. You and the rest of his family are in my prayers. RIP, Todd.

“ To My Dear Brother, Todd

We all take life for granted and the time we may have with the ones we love, we never know when the last time will be we'll be able to see our loved ones and be able to say "I Love You". You'll forever be in my heart.

*"May your spirit soar in freedom
From the fears that gripped so tight.
May you find the peace you search for
As you wandered, lost, in the night.*

*May your tortured mind be clear and calm
And your tender heart be warm.
May you have no need for strength now.
May there ne'er be another storm.*

*May the music of the angels
Be the sweet sounds that you hear.
As you're rocked in Heaven's cradle
May you ne'er shed another tear.*

*I'll wear your memory proudly,
My only brother....
May my love for you reach Heaven above
Until we meet again."*

Love,

Your Sister, Vickie

“ *I saw my brother cry today.
It did not seem to me that he was six feet tall.
To see my brother hurt,
It made me want to cry.
Love is not measured in how tall you are,
Or how far around your arms go.
When you hug someone that you love so.
But how much it hurts to let someone you love go.
I want my brother to know that he
Is loved by all, especially me.
I saw my brother cry today.*

Thank you Billie, for loving my brother .

“Brothers are special. They are your friend, antagonist, and confidant all in one. My brother Todd was all of these things. We were only 3yrs apart and for many years shared a special bond, one that I will cherish forever. Todd was a friend, spending time together on the weekends having laughs and by helping my physical pain. A talented massage therapist, he was able to help my back pain. A naturalist, making me choke down noni juice! All because he cared. He antagonized me, which once led to a cool fight where we had to quickly clean up just so mom and daddy didn't find out! He was at times a confidant, listening and helping me through troubled times. He gave 100% in all he did and I am very proud of him. I wish we had more time with each other in life but take comfort in knowing he is no longer in pain.

“My thoughts of Uncle Todd was as him being fun. He would always tease me about everything. He brought me to my knees several times with a squeeze of his hand on my shoulder. Practicing his massage therapy :). It was kind of like an aunt squeezing your cheeks. Even through periods of absence he was always in my heart and will remain there for eternity.

So long as we live, they too shall live and love for they are a part of us, as we remember them ~ Gates of Prayer
