

Troy Donald DeVold

November 17, 1970 - October 14, 2024

Troy Donald DeVold 53, of Casselberry, Florida passed away on October 14, 2024. Troy was born on November 17, 2024 to Gail DeVold and the late Robert B. DeVold. Troy is survived by his loving sister; Melissa Hughes and Brother-in-law; Joshua Hughes.

Tribute Wall

GH

“ I have known Troy for close to 10 years. If there is a more generous man I have yet to meet him. I was a TV exec, and have been teaching a course at Cal State Fullerton on Business of Television every fall and spring, and a course in Reality Television in our Study Abroad summer program. Every fall and spring Troy spoke to my class in person or via zoom. Summers I used his book, which was invaluable. I was profoundly sad to learn he passed and I just want his family to know he made a huge contribution to the lives of hundreds of college students, most who are first generation and from underserved populations. I will miss him.

Garry Hart

Professor and Chair

Department of Cinema and Television

Cal State Fullerton

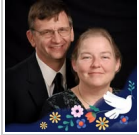

Garry Hart - November 15, 2024 at 06:12 PM

HF

“ I just spoke with him a few weeks ago, and I'm heartbroken to hear of his passing. He had such a great sense of humor and was always there for me when I needed a friend. It's hard to believe he's really gone. To his mom: he loved you deeply and always spoke about you with such affection. Words can't express how sorry I am for your loss; I can only imagine the depth of your sorrow.

Holly Freeling - October 25, 2024 at 08:10 PM

“ I met Troy in drama class at Brandon High School. We reconnected after he moved to Los Angeles. Such a wonderful guy and so talented. Somewhere I still have a caricature he drew of me a long time ago and an autographed copy of his first book. I am so sorry for your loss. My prayers are with your family during this time of grief.

Jeff Bayne - October 23, 2024 at 10:57 PM

DC

“ 3 files added to the album Friends

Derek Christopher - October 21, 2024 at 08:17 PM

RS

“ I met Troy at Flagler College. He was a unique and kind soul. So creative. Memories of Troy are filled with joy. To his family and friends, I hold you in my heart. I am deeply sorry for his passing.

Rosann Santorelli-Corolla - October 19, 2024 at 08:55 AM

GR

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Troy was a bright, shining star; he had a gift for making people comfortable in their own skin and loving them for all their quirks and unique ways. He was a genuine guy and a true gentleman.

Garrett Riggs - October 19, 2024 at 01:21 AM

AF

“ He was so supportive and always made himself available when you needed help on a project. He was not only smart and funny but kind. He will be missed by many.

Alexsiya Flora - October 19, 2024 at 01:17 AM

AA

“ Alexia A. planted a Memorial Tree in honor of Troy Donald DeVold.

Alexia A. - October 19, 2024 at 01:11 AM

CF

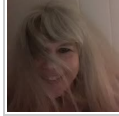

“ I met Troy at Flagler College probably in a Western Civilization class. He was a joy to know from the moment we did get to meet. He was such a great gentleman too rare. He was funny, bright, enthusiastic and someone I always looked forward to seeing again. Once another student told him I was from Canada he bought me a lovely maple leaf pin I have kept all these years given with such thoughtfulness. In the last couple of years we reconnected through Flagler Facebook and picked up our great friendship as if a day had not past since last we saw each other. I was so proud of him and all his creative outlets and so excited that he had started mentoring students at Full Sail. I knew he had much to share in professional accomplishments and personal ways of being. I had hoped that he might teach near me in Savannah and we both hoped to get together. I send my deepest condolences to his family and all those who cared for him. I felt so fortunate to know such a charming man who made so many happy in his endeavors- truly a lovely legacy. May the light perpetual shine upon Troy.

Carolynne Foote - October 19, 2024 at 12:16 AM

GD

Tribute to Troy by a Flagler College friend.

Gail DeVold - October 22, 2024 at 01:23 PM

I met Troy when we worked at Borders Bookstore in Tampa. We remained friends for nearly 30 years. He was delightful--funny, warm, and incredibly talented. He was the definition of a true gentleman. He made the world a better place. My heartfelt condolences to his family and friends.

Paulina Shadowens - November 18, 2024 at 09:56 AM

WF

“ 1 file added to the album Friends

Willis Wonderland Foundation - October 18, 2024 at 10:23 PM

KA

“ Troy and I went to and graduated from Brandon High School together

He was a fun classmate then and could always make me smile

My heart is hurting knowing that I won't be able to get regular doses of his positivity and humor

Kara Sealy Atchison - October 18, 2024 at 07:55 PM

BP

A heart and mind like no other. You will be missed. It has been an honor to call you friend.

Beth Pollard - October 19, 2024 at 01:30 PM

GF

He was a tribute to the people who raised and loved him. A great clever creative charismatic man who made an impact on everyone he worked with.

Greg Feltes - October 19, 2024 at 11:49 PM

MB

We are so saddened to hear of Troy's passing. I've enjoyed being his friend. He's so supportive, kind, and talented. A gem that adored his mother. He will be forever alive in my heart. Thank you for being our friend, Troy.

Molly Skye Brown - October 29, 2024 at 03:58 PM