“ Dearest Auntie Mila, it has been so many years since we were all last together but the passing of time has not dimmed the wonderful memories I hold so dear of time spent with you, Uncle and my cousins Usha & Krishna. From when I used to pretend to be able to read yours & Uncle’s palms and make you laugh with my fortune telling skills, to making mix tapes on the floor of your living room with Usha, to getting dressed up and all going out for Brunch and dinners at some amazing places in Florida. So many happy memories- too many to mention here! You were the sweetest Auntie to me- driving me to mall so many times, always making me my favourite foods including your amazing scrambled eggs- no one could come close to your cooking! When I think of you I can still hear your chuckle, I loved making you laugh. The holidays me, mum & dad spent staying with you all are some of the best times I can remember growing up. You & Uncle were two of the most genuine, caring and kind hearted souls I’ve ever met and it was an honour to have been part of your life. Mum and I take comfort that you are finally at peace now reunited with Uncle. We pray one day we will all see each other again, but until that time please know how much you meant to us and that I will always be there for Usha & Krishna despite the miles between us. Sleep well dear Auntie Mila, with all my love. Chloé xXx

“ My Dearest Dee Mila, I felt such joy when our paths met up again after 30 years, when I came to Orlando with my Family to Disney World. We had both pursued our career and life, you to India first and then to Florida, whilst I went to England. You were so kind, generous and we had wonderful times together, especially cooking our Mauritian Food. You always had a penchant for Handbags and wedges! I used to look forward to coming to see you in Orlando and we use to speak in our Mauritian Language Creole, you still remembered, you were a little rusty but we had a good laugh. Oh how I miss you Dee but I will always cherish those lovely memories. Rest in peace my lovely Big Sister from Devi. Xxx
